James Black: Ballades (2016) Bass flute solo. Dur. 6'

James Black (b. 1990) is a bold and uncompromising young composer. His music exists in a field of strict structures and expressive sounds. Ballades is written for one of Denmark's leading flautists for contemporary music, Hélène Navasse. Score: DKK 112.50 / € 15.00

Eva Noer Kondrup: Dølgøje (2018) Piccolo solo. Dur. 4'

Eva Noer Kondrup (b. 1964) often finds inspiration in the patterns of the laces and weavings created by women throughout history, and sees them as unwritten music scores. Through the end of this piece she has - with the notes - drawn a pair of eyes with a fortissimo troll splinter in them. It is a pair of eyes that sees secrets. Score: DKK 112.50 / € 15.00

Eva Noer Kondrup: Diary from the Mountains (1996) Flute solo. Dur. 9'

Score: DKK 172.50 / € 23.25

Jexper Holmen: Dysnomia (2009) Bass flute + live processing. Dur. 10'

Jexper Holmen's (b. 1971) music seems to be infused with the energy of punk and postpunk rock. The intention with the playing techniques used in Dysnomia is to give a thick, frayed sound-picture which sways between tone and noise. Score: DKK 135.00 / € 18.00

Jexper Holmen: Haze (2005) Flute solo + amplification, effect processor and stage light.

Dur. 23'

Score: DKK 135.00 / € 18.00

Sven Erik Werner: Dramma giocoso (1981) Flute solo. Dur. 9'

Mozart had to invent a new genre while writing Don Giovanni: dramma giocoso; neither opera seria nor opera buffa, nor anything in between - but something quite different. This unpretentious flute piece by Sven Erik Werner (b. 1937) can only hope to have anything more than the title in common with Mozart's masterpiece. The flute tells a story - a dramma giocoso - and plays all the characters itself. Score: DKK 112.50 / € 15.00
